C. BOY, MISSING ON CYCLOPS, SENT

"Hello, Frank. I am in this country now, and having one fine time. Give the boys my best regards.

This message on a postcard, mailed from Lo Des Rits, Brazil, has been received by Frank Hugher, of The Times. It is from Edward Scott. Morgan, jr., 1364 Columbia read northwest, and was mailed just before he sailed on the naval collier cyclogs, of which the Navy Depart-ment has received no word for forty.

three days. three Gays.

Notgan, now believed lost with 25;
other men aboard the collier, was an employe of The Times before enter ing the service of the ration.

That the Cyclopa left Barbadoes in

That the Cyclops left Barbadoes in the West Indies on March 4 bound for an Atlantic port and following a familiar route is the only announce-ment made by the Navy Department

Some belief is being put in the theory that the vessel was the vic-tim of an explosion caused by a time bomb placed on board at her last port of call.

The Cyclops has disappeared without leaving wreckage and without flashing a wireless call.

The theory that the vessel had been captured by some enemy craft. finds little support at the Navy Desartment.

partment.
Under certain atmospheric condi-tions the manganese on board might throw off a poisonous gas, but pre-cautions are always taken on ships engaged in the manganese carrying trade. Besides, this would hardly account for the disappearance.

The Cyclops was armed with five-inch guns and had a sufficient quantity of ammunition aboard for use in

With a bullet wound in the roof of his mouth and a pistol in his right hand, the body of an unidentified man was found last night in the lumber yard of Johnson & Wimsatt, 1212 Water atreet southwest. After an in-vestigation, Coroner Nevitt, who had the body removed to the morgue, gave a certificate of suicide. No letters or papers were found to indicate why he ended his life.

The man was about thirty-five years old, five feet eight inches tall, and weighed about 150 pounds. He had, brown hair, gray eyes, and was smooth shaven. He wore a dark suit, striped shirt, slouch hat, and tan shoes. Coroner Nevitt is trying to locate the man's relatives.
